

Xiaotian “Daisy” Hu, MS, PhD Candidate (she/her)

UW LEND Psychology Fellow

- I’m Daisy Hu, born and raised in a rural village in China.
- Currently, I am a psychology resident in the Autism and Neurodevelopment Disabilities Track at University of Washington and Seattle Children’s Hospital.
- I’m a doctoral student in Counseling Psychology program at University of Missouri-Columbia and was a Missouri LEND trainee.
- I look forward to learning and collaborating with a diverse and multidisciplinary team to better serve neurodivergent individual and their families. I’m particularly interested in transition to adulthood.
- I enjoy hiking and cooking with my partner and cuddling my cat (Mr. Burger).
