UW Medicine Compliance

Consent for Collection and Use of Personal Data: By continuing through this process, you are consenting to University of Washington's (UW) and UW Medicine use of data about you for the purpose of tracking and reporting compliance training. Data records will be maintained for at least 10 years, according to UW Records Retention Schedule. The UW may share your data with other units around the UW that have a business reason to use or access the data (coordinators/leadership verifying compliance training completion and completion rate).

Even after you give your consent, you may ask to see your data or request to have your data corrected or erased. You may also object to or request restrictions on how your data will be processed. You may ask that your data be forwarded or transferred to another organization. Finally, you may withdraw your consent without penalty. If you do decide to withdraw consent at a later date, your withdrawal will not change the fact that your data has been processed legally up to that point.

For more information or to file a complaint, now or later, please contact UW Medicine Compliance. If your data protection related questions or concern are not addressed after contacting UW Medicine, then you may also contact UW's designated data protection officer, Ann Nagel, Institutional Privacy Official and Associate Vice Provost for Privacy.
