

Yusuke Matsuura, MD, MPH

Developmental-Behavioral Pediatrics Fellow (he/him)

Born and raised in rural area in Japan!
I moved to the U.S. in 2021.

Worked as a physician in Japan for 3 years, then completed 3-year pediatric residency training in New York, and moved to Seattle this year for DBP training!

I would like to learn community advocacy with peers from different backgrounds and roles!

I am a big foodie, especially obsessed with boba tea.
I love traveling both domestically and internationally!"
