

Tara Pettersson (She/Her)

UW LEND Family Discipline

- Mother of two neurodiverse young adults.
- Involved in various Greater Seattle-based initiatives including 'Roots2Wings Family Group' - a hub for information, resources, and a supportive network for families with neurodiverse members and those serving the neurodiverse community.
- From Texas by way of Boston. Have lived in PNW for last eight years and love it!
- A passion for building stronger connections and community between providers and families - so exciting!
- Lifelong learner and seeker of connections that help me better support and advocate for the neurodiverse community.
- Love my family, my fur babies, the water, good food, good friends, renovating old homes, road trips, gardening and reading.
